

Rev. Paul Habershtock
Des Plaines IL
Cell: (708)651-1509
revpaulhabershtock@gmail.com

Born June 1936 in Akron, Ohio, Paul's father died in early 1941 of trichinosis. His grandmother and youngest uncle (Werner) moved in with Paul and his mother. In 1944 Werner went to Concordia in River Forest, Illinois for high school and graduated from college there in 1952.

Paul's mother remarried in June 1949, and they moved to Mayfield Hts., Ohio (suburb east of Cleveland) where he gained three stepbrothers (one older). He attended Our Savior in Mayfield Hts. and was confirmed there in 1950. Educated through grade 7 at Zion in Akron, he graduated from St. John, South Euclid in 1950. In 1954 he graduated from Cleveland Lutheran High (downtown) and from River Forest as a teacher with organ and choir skills in 1958. He received a M.Ed. in 1968 from Wayne State University in Detroit.

Assigned in 1958 to Martin Luther Chapel and Christian Day School in Pennsauken NJ, Paul married 1st and 2nd grade teacher Dorothy Chorba in 1960 and accepted the Call to Peace in Detroit as teacher and director of church music. His son Werner and daughter Kristen were born and baptized at Peace Lutheran Church.

In 1969 Paul determined to move from teaching to pastoring and church music and accepted the invitation of Pastor John E. Meyer to serve Concordia in Maplewood, MO as interim church musician while enrolled in a colloquy program at Concordia Seminary in St. Louis. He was assigned to Concordia as vicar in 1971 upon completion of the colloquy program, and assistant pastor in 1972 upon ordination at Our Savior in Mayfield Heights, OH. He asked not to be called as pastor when Pastor Meyer accepted a Missouri District position.

In 1974 Paul received and accepted the Call to Pastor Zoar with Northwest Lutheran School in Elmwood Park, Illinois. In 1979 he accepted the Call to Immanuel in Des Plaines, Illinois as associate pastor and director of church and school music. In 1989 he was encouraged to train and become a hospital chaplain. With Lutheran General Hospital nearby he remained at Immanuel part-time while completing a four-quarter residency in Clinical Pastoral Education. In 1991 Paul was employed by Chicago College of Osteopathic Medicine for their hospital in Olympia Fields, Illinois. He retired in 2001 from full-time work.

Dorothy died in 2015 of dementia complications after a fall. With peripheral neuropathy and using a rollator Paul now lives in Brookdale Senior Solutions in Des Plaines near his daughter, son and several congregations for worship and service.

Marianne is a member of Redeemer Lutheran Church in Sarnia, Ontario. She was born and grew up in Sarnia with her parents and sister. She graduated from Northern Collegiate Institute and Vocational School (NCIVS) in 1971 then attended and graduated from the Hamilton and District School of Nursing (1973). She obtained and maintains her Registered Nurse status and license to practice from the College of Nurses of Ontario.

Marianne began her nursing profession at the community hospital in Sarnia (1973) and in 1979 pursued a 40+ year career as an Occupational Health Nurse. Upon retirement (2009), she continued to work part time for Rapids Family Health Team, a primary care facility, as the Occupational Health and Quality Assurance Coordinator (2010-2017) and continues there as a contract consultant today.

Marianne graduated from Ryerson University in Toronto with a certificate in Occupational Health and Safety and held the designation as a Certified Occupational Health Nurse (COHN-C) with the Canadian Nurses Association until 2019. She graduated with her certificate in Parish Nursing from Concordia University of Alberta (2009) and completed the IDEAS Advanced Learning Program offered to health professionals (2015) towards leading quality improvement in patient healthcare, experience and outcomes.

She is a member of several nursing professional associations and is a volunteer for several health programs offered to the community by Rapids Family Health Team.

Marianne and her husband Tom have been married for forty-six years. They have three grown children and one grandson.

Rev. Dr. Christian Just Streetsboro, Ohio
Cell: (216) 789-6688
doctorjust@gmail.com

Pastor Just serves as part-time pastor for St. Thomas Lutheran Church in Streetsboro, Ohio. He is “officially” retired but continues to serve the church in the Streetsboro parish, at Lutheran Metropolitan Ministries in Cleveland, and as part of Healing Care Ministries International, located in Ashland, Ohio.

He is a 1973 graduate of Concordia Seminary in St. Louis (M.Div.) and holds a doctorate from Ashland (Ohio) Seminary (D. Min. in Formational Counseling, 2009). Formational Counseling involves Spirit-led therapy, Spiritual Direction, and Formational Prayer (what is sometimes referred to as Inner-Healing Prayer). He also graduated from the Pastoral Psychology Institute at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland and served on its Board for three years. He has offered himself for counseling especially to area pastors and their families.

He and his wife Kristine enjoy music together (especially the Cleveland Orchestra). He would like to be an avid golfer, if only he could get his game together.

Rev. Derek Mathers
Waterloo, Ontario
Canadian Cell: (416) 320-6366
English District Office: (800) 755-9335 Ext. 311
dmathers@englishdistrict.org

Born in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, Derek grew up in Minnesota and Okinawa, Japan, but returned to Canada to attend Brock University in St. Catharines, Ontario, where he met and married Deb.

Ordained and installed as pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Beamsville, Ontario on August 4, 1984, he has also served Grace Lutheran in Mitchell, Ontario; and the Church of St. Luke - Lutheran in Toronto. They have two daughters and two grandchildren.

His role at the Church of St. Luke changed from Senior Pastor to Associate when, in the fall of 2015, he accepted the call to serve as Assistant to the President/Bishop of the English District and District Mission Executive. With the call of a new Senior Pastor at the Church of St. Luke in 2019, Derek became an Associate Pastor at the Church of St. Mark – Lutheran in Mississauga. His service to the district includes co-chairing the District Ministerial Health Commission, which means he is a pastor to many pastors and church workers, along with their families. He describes himself as a passionate disciple of Jesus who wants to make disciples who can make disciples.

“These are not easy times in the church today,” he says, “and it is my privilege to walk alongside our church worker families with a listening ear.”

I am a registered nurse and served my congregation in El Cajon, California as a Parish Nurse from 1991 until my retirement in 2019. I continue to serve as the Parish Nurse District Representative for the LCMS English District. I also serve on the board of directors for Lutheran Parish Nurses International.

Rev. Justin Schmidt
McMurray, Pennsylvania
Cell: (217) 979-2473
justinschmidt40@hotmail.com

Justin was born at St. Clair hospital in the South Hills of Pittsburgh in August of 1974. Justin began his first year of college at Virginia Tech studying engineering.

The following year, he transferred to Concordia College in Ann Arbor, Michigan where he graduated with a degree in Biblical Studies. While attending college in Ann Arbor, Justin met his wife Marion who was studying elementary education.

Following graduation, Justin continued his studies at Concordia Seminary in St. Louis Missouri. Justin's vicarage year was spent in Gillette, Wyoming, and he received his first call to a dual parish at St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Devils Lake, and Grace Lutheran Church in Lakota, North Dakota. While serving in North Dakota, Pastor Schmidt joined the North Dakota National Guard as a chaplain and was assigned to the 1-188 Air Defense Artillery.

While in North Dakota Pastor Schmidt was blessed by God with a son, Wolfram, and a daughter, Lilia. While expecting his third child, a son, Augustine, he accepted a call to Central Illinois to Peace Lutheran Church.

Finally, in 2018 Pastor Schmidt accepted the call to serve as pastor at Peace Lutheran Church in McMurray Pennsylvania. After leaving his home at the age of 18, Pastor Schmidt came full circle at age 45, returning to where he grew up.

Pastor Schmidt is active with his children's activities, community organizations, and, of course, the Church. To relax Justin enjoys fly fishing, hunting in Western USA, and golfing with family. If Justin is not with his family or doing these activities, you can find him under his Jeep turning a wrench.

Rev. Steve Sutterer
Lansing, Michigan
Cell: (517) 243-5167
ssutterer@gmail.com

Pastor Steve Sutterer was born in Rochester, Minnesota, growing up there for five years before moving to Gainesville, Florida. He spent six years there before moving back to Rochester, Minnesota. He graduated from Rochester John Marshall High School in 1973, then attended St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minnesota and graduated with a teaching degree in social studies and a minor in psychology. He started his career teaching 7th graders and coaching high school girls swimming in Alexandria, Minnesota for three years. He then spent two years as a Student Activities Director and Dorm Head Resident at Luther College in Decorah, Iowa.

At this point Steve desired a path into ministry and entered Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, Missouri in the fall of 1980. He is the 11th in his family to enter into the ministry. He graduated in May of 1984 and accepted a call to serve as pastor at St. Paul's Lutheran church in Milaca, Minnesota. He served there until 1988. In September of 1988 he chose to work further on specialized pastoral care ministry and spent a year in Clinical Pastoral Education training at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota.

Following that year, he took a call to serve his home parish of Redeemer Lutheran Church in Rochester, Minnesota until December of 1991 when he accepted a call from the North Wisconsin District to be a chaplain at St. Joseph's Hospital in Marshfield, Wisconsin. He stayed there until April of 2010 and took a position in Lansing, Michigan at Sparrow Hospital. He received a call from the National Board of Missions in 2014 to serve at Sparrow Hospital. He became the manager for Sparrow Pastoral Care in 2020. He has spent much of his career working in mental health units and working with those in addiction.

Pastor Steve and his wife Martha live in Mason, Michigan. Martha is a paralegal in the areas of trademark and patents. They have five grown children, and five grandchildren.
