

The Toronto March for Life will take place at the south façade of the Ontario Legislature in Queen's Park on Saturday, May 23. Participants will begin gathering at 11 AM, the rally and speeches will start at 11:15, and the March through downtown Toronto will begin at noon. Lunch and a series of workshops will follow the March; advance registration is required for these post-March activities. Further information is available at <https://torontomarchforlife.ca>.

Prior to the March, LCMS and Lutheran Church—Canada participants will gather at Trinity Lutheran Church, 619 Sherbourne St., Toronto, ON M4X 1L7, at 9 AM for a pre-March breakfast, with Matins to follow at 9:30 AM. The group will then proceed to the March.

For those in Kitchener and Mitchell, the Stratford Right to Life is sponsoring a bus to the March, which will enable riders to participate in the pre-March service, the March, and the post-March workshops. The cost is $20 per adult/student and free for children. Further details are available by phoning Bonnie De Weerd at (519) 502-1389.
