"How can they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how are they to preach unless they are sent?" Romans 10:14-15a (ESV)

Meet Pastor Job: A Shepherd with a Vision for Tijuana

Growing up as the son of a Lutheran pastor in Mexico, Job Jiménez experienced firsthand the joys and challenges of ministry. His own journey to becoming a pastor included moments of doubt, but God faithfully led him back to his calling. Today, Pastor Job serves at Iglesia Luterana Cristo Redentor in Tijuana, working to strengthen congregations, develop new missions, and prepare future church workers.

Through his partnership with the Lutheran Mission Society San Diego (LMSSD), he has found friendship, encouragement, mentoring, and new opportunities for collaboration across the border. In May 2026, he celebrated an important milestone, completing his theology degree through Concordia Seminary El Reformador in the Dominican Republic.

Please pray for Pastor Job, his family, and the Lutheran Church in Tijuana: for wisdom, more workers, and God's provision. Through your support of LMSSD, you are helping ensure that Pastor Job does not walk alone.

We read in Romans 10: 15b, "As it is written, ' How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news!'"
