

On January 24th, thousands upon thousands gathered in Washington, DC, to tell our elected leaders that we support life from conception to natural death. The Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod and the English District were there to walk and raise our voices for life.

More pictures are available here.

How do Lutherans march? We sing!

While we gathered to wait for the march to start, we sang some of our favorite hymns like God's Own Child I Gladly Say it, A Mighty Fortress Is Our God, and The Church's One Foundation.

We confessed Christ.

The Eyes of Life

It was easy to see us. Yellow hats on our heads, we followed the Eyes Of Life signs. The Eyes of Life is a LCMS website with stories, resources, and music that can help see the beauty of life

So Many People For Life

Thousands upon thousands of people marched for life. Some danced. Some walked solemnly. Some were laughing, but we all came there for life.

